

Melton Scholars Course

JEWS IN AMERICA: INSIDERS AND OUTSIDERS

A 10-Week Exploration with Rabbi Gary Fink

Jews in America: Insiders and Outsiders will provide students with the opportunity to consider the challenges of Jewish acculturation to American life, and the sacrifices as well as the contributions that have been made over the past 200 years.

Lessons will explore such topics as the role of education, The Three Generation Hypothesis, Anti-Semitism and the Holocaust, the changing place of Zionism and the State of Israel, The Civil Rights Movement as a case study of distinctiveness and involvement, and other issues that address American and Jewish culture and identity. This fascinating course asks the question, “Is the cup half-empty or half full?” as optimists and pessimists debate the future of Jewish identity in America.

Mondays beginning October 28 through January 13 (no classes December 23 & 30), 7:15 – 8:45 PM

Classes to be held at Oseh Shalom, 7515 Olive Branch Way, Laurel, MD 20707

Register today at link below!

<https://www.habermaninstitute.org/fall-2019-class-listings/2019/8/19/jews-in-america-insiders-and-outsiders> 301.770.4787

Class tuition $250, hard copy text $45 or eBook $30. Use code OS25 for 10% Oseh Shalom member discount at registration. The first 15 Oseh Shalom registrants will receive this special discount. Some partial scholarship funds are available for Oseh Shalom members. Contact Val Kaplan, vkaplan66@verizon.net for information.